

NOVEMBER 2020
NUMBER 655

CINCINNATI C.P.P.S. NEWSLETTER

*In Christ, through the shedding of his blood,
we have redemption and
forgiveness of our sins.*

Ephesians 1:7a

“Responding to the Needs of the Church”

“St. Gaspar is a great role model for us in the way that he responded to the needs of the Church and the needs of the town,” said Fr. Tom Benzberger, C.P.P.S., who presided at a Mass on the Solemnity of St. Gaspar, October 21 at St. Charles Center in Carthage, Ohio.

Noting the 2020 jubilees are great role models, Fr. Benzberger said at the conclusion of the Mass, as he called forth those who live at St. Charles: Fr. Jerry Schultz, C.P.P.S., celebrating 45 years as a religious brother, and Fr. Charles McCarthy, C.P.P.S., celebrating 50 years. They were presented with a package of greetings from Precious Blood people around the world, including Fr. Emmanuel Lugin, C.P.P.S., the moderator general.

All 2020 jubilees, including Frs. Ken Holman (50 years), Don Davidson and Gene Schaefer (40 years) and Fr. David Chason and Fr. David Niles (25 years) of the Kansas City Province, all received such a package. The 2020 jubilees were awarded a large Community celebration of their collective anniversaries due to the circumstances.

On a 2020 jubilee, Fr.
(Continued on page 114)

Greg Evers Receives Order of Acolyte

Greg Evers, C.P.P.S., a candidate in advanced formation with the Minorists of the Precious Blood, was installed as an acolyte on October 11 in Chicago.

Fr. Jeffrey Karch, C.P.P.S., provincial director, was on hand to preside at the rite, held at the Minorist “San Felipe Formation House.”

Fr. Steve Don Santos, C.P.P.S., director of vocations
(Continued on page 114)

Above, Fr. Tom Benzberger presents gifts to jubilees Fr. Jerry Schultz, left, and Fr. Charles McCarthy at the Gaspar Day Mass. Below, the gift book, which was full of messages from the Precious Blood family.