A Candidate in Advanced Formation with the Missionaries of the Precious Blood

“My advice to anyone discerning a vocation to religious life is to not be afraid to ask questions and have conversations about it. If there is still an attraction to it, don't be afraid to give religious life a try. God will let you know if it is right for you or not. It never hurts to try. You will learn more about yourself and the kind of person God calls you to be. Which is basically the whole point of formation: to help us grow into the people God calls us to be.”

- From Maria Stein, Ohio
- In his seventh year of formation with the Missionaries of the Precious Blood
- Studying theology at Catholic Theological Union, Chicago
