

FINDING HOPE IN THE BROKEN HEART OF GOD

The suffering of the world breaks God's heart. But God so loves the world that God sends Jesus to walk with us through the pain and losses of our lives to find hope in the glory of the resurrection. The broken heart of God is revealed in the cross of Jesus, which is etched in ashes upon our foreheads as the season of Lent begins to remind us we never walk alone.

February 23 – Fr. Joe Nassal, C.P.P.S.
From the Wilderness to the Mountaintop:
Looking for Hope Along the Way

March 2 – Fr. Barry Fischer, C.P.P.S.
Redemptive Suffering:
Finding Meaning in Suffering

March 9 – Fr. Dennis Chriszt, C.P.P.S.
Facing Stumbling Blocks
and Foolishness Along the Way

March 16 – Fr. David Matz, C.P.P.S.
Broken-Hearted Healers:
Finding Hope in Being Present

March 23 – Fr. Denny Kinderman, C.P.P.S.
Lament: Expressing Grief
in Community Gives Hope

March 30 – Fr. Keith Branson, C.P.P.S.
Finding Hope with Mary
at the Foot of the Cross

There will be a Zoom reflection session available on Tuesdays at 8 PM EST. To participate in those, please register at <https://forms.gle/qyRGZqGkrehsAcuJ9>.

Missionaries of the Precious Blood
cpps-preciousblood.org

